

Invitation to the 19th Session of the Commission on Phytosanitary Measures

Rome, Italy, 17-21 March 2025

The Director-General of the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations (FAO) has the honour to refer to the International Plant Protection Convention (IPPC) and to extend an invitation to attend the 19th Session of the Commission on Phytosanitary Measures. The Session will be held at FAO headquarters in Rome from 17 to 21 March 2025.

The Session is being convened under the provisions of Article XI of the International Plant Protection Convention (1997) and is open to Non-Contracting Parties to the Convention as observers.

The Session will be conducted in Arabic, Chinese, English, French, Russian and Spanish.

... The Provisional Agenda is enclosed, and other working documents will be made available on the International Phytosanitary Portal: www.ippc.int.

The Director-General would appreciate receiving as soon as possible the name(s) of the observer(s) designated to participate in this Session. Online registration will be accessible through the password-protected area of the FAO Members Gateway at <http://www.fao.org/members-gateway/home/en/>. Instructions for online registration can be downloaded from the website. Please note that online registration requires the uploading of a recent passport-size digital photograph.

Representatives from international organizations designated to attend the meeting as observers are requested to forward their names, official titles and addresses by email to IPPC@fao.org by 1 February 2025 together with a recent passport-size photograph.

Before travelling, participants should check visa requirements with the competent Italian Consulate. Kindly note that visas can be requested in the country of origin (country in which the participant holds citizenship) or in the country of residence (country in which the participant resides at the time of visa application). Participants travelling from a country where there is no Italian Consulate may apply at the correspondent Italian Consulate in a neighbouring country, or at any other Consulate, which belongs to a Schengen or European country. Visa applications should be submitted to the Italian Consulate one month before arrival in Italy. It is the responsibility of participants to request their visa applications personally, arrange for an appointment and present all the necessary documentation to the Italian Consulate. Participants who do not need an entry visa to enter Italy should ensure that their passports are valid for at least six months after the intended date of departure from the Schengen area. In these cases, upon entering Italy, border authorities may require participants to show evidence for the reason and the duration of their stay in Italy. Participants with non-direct flights to Rome should check whether a transit visa is necessary to enter the transit area of international airports.
